"It is beautifully done and real contribution to literature. Gampopa is of course my favourite lineage master's and I have been recommending the book to my students. I look forward to seeing the next volume of Simhananda's work."

"The Great Golden Garland of Gampopa's Sublime Considerations on the Supreme Path presents a single brief quotation on each page, along with a notation in the page corner so that the reader can keep track of which line of the original text the quotation is from. Quality hardcover binding and an inset ribbon bookmark contribute to the practicality and durability of this edition, which is meant to be read, reread, and contemplated at length. The timeless wisdom of a Tibetan Buddhism master is superbly preserved and presented in this classic work."
