Our Ordinary Extraordinary Earth and Its Extraordinary Ordinary People

Simhananda

Gold Award at the 2009 Nautilus Book Awards: Art/Specialty/Gift category

Award Winning Finalist at National Best Books 2008 Awards in the Photography category

"The photographer has an excellent eye for capturing unusual and provocative imagery. It's an interesting collection of art ... could be used as a meditative aid. Superb photos."

"...an elegance that leads from the cover into the main body- which is simply gorgeous. The photography is excellent and the color reproduction outstanding."

- Comments from judges at the 2009 Benjamin Franklin Book Awards

"This high quality coffee table book contains more than 400 original colour photographs. All of the photographs are original and come with a subjective, often humorous, witty comment. You will certainly be touched by the beauty and mystery of planet Earth."

- Fine Art Publications, June 2009

"Author and photographer presents "a fresh perspective" on the world and its people; included are photographs of Stonehenge, Eiffel Tower, Chartres Cathedral, Egyptian statues in the Musée du Louvres, and the "mystery lady with yellow umbrella."

- ForeWord Magazine, March 2009

"Simhananda invites the reader to relax and let the photos speak for themselves. They have their own Truth to convey and communicate.

The photographs in this volume of transformative photography are somewhat like little wake-up calls or soul-ar beams rousing us into a greater wakefulness, and coaxing us to see the world in a totally fresh perspective... one that is ordinarily extraordinary and extraordinarily ordinary."

-Photography News Articles, June 2009

"This is a coffee table book that every one should have."
