Every one of the 308 pages of this beautifully designed book, bestows a different question with the word LIGHT, which seems to mysteriously inspire introspection and a profound sense of inner peace.

The tranquil, and intent reflection upon each poetic question awakens in the reader the dispassion, discrimination and meditative discipline needed for a life of conscious work and enlightened service to the all of humanity.

"These 308 Questions of Light are an invitation to invoke the Light of the Soul into our daily lives, thereby revealing the inner light that potentially resides within us all."

-Simhananda
